HELP THE Y. M. C. A. "HUTS."

NE county's share of that $35,000,000 fund being raised by the nation for the Y. M. C. A. "huts" on the firing line is only $2,250. Of all the various war appeals this one should be the most appealing. Certainly Nye county people, known for their generosity and patriotism, will not be behind. Subscriptions may be made at the post office or either of the banks, and if desired they may be made in installments. A contribution of only $10 will give some Nye county soldier boy the benefits of the Y. M. C. A. "home" for seven months.

The Y. M. C. A. trench huts are frequently built within a few hundred yards of the front line trenches. They are built to withstand shell fire, dug into the earth and walled with sandbags, small and dimly lighted of a necessity, but a haven of real comfort; a warm "home" with many comforts. The boys come in from the arduous work of the trenches, covered with mud, tired, cold and nerve-wracked. Into the dark entrance of the hut they go, showing no light for fear of informing the German artillery of their whereabouts. Inside there is the dim light of candles, warmth, companionship, music, an opportunity to write letters home to the dear ones. In there the boys relax, play popular music on the phonograph, sing songs and tell each other their experiences. With paper on their knees they write their letters home; in the gracious warmth of the fire they get rid of the chill in their bones and busy themselves scraping the caked mud from their clothes. In those huts there are many things that go towards making the home feeling—warmth, companionship, rest.

Surely there never was a more worthy cause presented to the people of Tonopah. There should be no delay in the raising of that $2,250. Everyone should help so that it can be realized within a few days. The $35,000,000 which the entire nation is asked to contribute will keep the Y. M. C. A. huts going until July, 1918. Nevada's share is $30,000, as she has sent 2,000 soldiers to the front. The entire organization is under government supervision. Do your share in the great work today. Make Nye's contribution another over-subscription.

Reginald Wright Kauffman, author of "The House of Bondage," in his new book, "The Soul of the Soldier," states: "My several years of social investigation have been passed among a class of human being below the reach of the Y. M. C. A. and my opinion of the association, had I formed any, would have been that it lacked the primal grip which alone can take hold of the primal man. Since then I have seen things that have changed my mind. I have been along the British front in the great war and have observed a little of the work done by the British Y. M. C. A."

"I have but now returned to Paris from the American camp in France and have been shown what against terrible odds and under every disadvantage the American Y. M. C. A. is there accomplishing. Against my prejudice I have been convinced. I believe I know that despite the admirable efforts of the officers the one chance of social salvation for the weaker and more lonely American soldiers in France lies solely in the hands of the Y. M. C. A."

"The army is teaching them to fight. The Red Cross is caring for the wounded and sick of body, but there is nothing, absolutely nothing, save the regimental chaplain and the Y. M. C. A. to care for the soldier's soul and to insure his social salvation, and the soul of the soldier is worth saving."

Guy Empey, author of "Over the Top," says in the New York Times: "You people in America ought to do everything you can to help the Y. M. C. A. It is the real home of the American soldier in France. It cannot give him his loved ones, but it gives him the comforts and interests and pleasures of home. It brings home to him, there in the mud of the trenches, and those Y. M. C. A. men aren't drawing any wonderful salaries either. They are volunteers and they are in the midst of the mud and the firing as the soldiers are to make the soldier comfortable and help him maintain the religion and the manliness that he had when he went into the war."

"The Y. M. C. A. doesn't make any distinction in any way. Protestant, Catholic, Jew, Atheist, everyone is welcome. Show me the soldier who makes a disparaging remark about the Y. M. C. A. or its work and I'll show you a soldier who is a detriment to the army, who is constantly in trouble and who has lost the respect of officers and mates."

"It is up to you people here at home to help the Y. M. C. A." Major General Leonard Wood, commanding the Eighty-Ninth Division, on October 24th said officially: "I have seen the Y. M. C. A. work all over the world and have found it to be excellent everywhere. Excellent as its work is and has been elsewhere, I believe that the work it is now doing in the great cantonments where our troops are being trained is perhaps the greatest and the best it has ever attempted. One has to see it to appreciate it. It is not enough to suppress commercialized vice and to close up undesirable places, but we must give the men places of the right type to go to. This is where the Y. M. C. A. has secured, perhaps, its best results. It has not only helped suppress vice and evil doings, but it has given the men attractive places of assembly and wholesome amusement."

"Abroad it is also doing splendid work behind the fighting lines at all hours, a work that means more than we can appreciate, unless actually on the ground. Every dollar given to the Y. M. C. A. is money given in a good cause. All who aid it are helping in a splendid work."

70,000 FIRE SUFFERERS CAMPING OUT CARED FOR BY RED CROSS

(Correspondence Associated Press.)

SALONIKI, Oct. 20.—There are 70,000 fire sufferers camping out in tents in and around Saloniki, with the British and French military authorities and the American Red Cross taking care of them. A tour of these relief camps gave an opportunity to see the extent of misery and want of these poor people, and the efficient relief work being done, chiefly by the British, as they have the largest stock of available supplies, with the Americans and French also doing their share.

The Dubular camps, where 2,500 people are being cared for by the British and the American Red Cross, was the first one visited. It is two miles back of the city, on rising hills, which the Bulgars thought to take when they made their first rush on the city.

On the way to the camp we passed the British supply base, and had an opportunity to see the vast reserves the British have laid in, in ammunition, food and charcoal for the cold months ahead. Nothing could have shown more clearly that the British, like the French, are here to stay. In munitions alone the stacks of shells extended for a mile along the road, and as far back as the eyes could see. In the engineering park there were acres of wire, curved steel trench covers and lengths of narrow-gauge railway, ready to put together, as children construct a toy railway. The stock of charcoal being laid in is prodigious, for there is no intention that the Tommies shall again be cold while in their trenches and dugouts. Endless trains of pack mules and camions circulated through this supply base, with the bustle and roar and overhanging cloud of dust of a colossal enterprise.

At Camp Bubular, where the refugees are quartered, a city of white tents spread out for half a mile over the level plain. They were the regulation British army tents, drawn from the big reserve base. They were laid out in regular streets and cross streets. Everything was

AMMUNITION FOR RIFLE CLUBS FROM THE U. S.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 15.—Colleges and rifle clubs in all parts of the country are seeking a suspension of the government rule denying them ammunition from the stores of the United States army, officials of the Western department of the army stated here recently. Some months ago they were told that they would receive no ammunition from the army, but should purchase all they desired from other sources.

Army officials here are at work on a scheme to satisfy the demand in part at least. The colleges and gun clubs have grown to such important military factors, the officials say, that their need for ammunition is great. Few of them have set funds for purchasing this ammunition.

The army men are also considering a "commutation scheme" of supplying these colleges and clubs with funds with which to buy ammunition, instead of opening the army stores to them.

MILITARY MISSION.

(By Associated Press.)

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 15.—It is announced that the Argentine congress will grant authorization at an early date to the government to arrange for a military mission to France and a naval mission to England or the United States. The newspapers comment favorably on the proposal.

Be Careful

how you leave matches around the house. Ten per cent of all fires in dwellings are caused by matches.

Be just as careful about placing your insurance. An insurance policy is a promise to pay in case you have a fire. Get the name of the strongest possible company on that promise.

JAPAN MAKES HUGE PROFITS THRO WAR

(By Associated Press.)

TOKIO, Nov. 15.—Profits derived by Japan from her trade since the beginning of the war amount to 1,500,000,000 yen. The premier, Count Terauchi, at a dinner which he gave in honor of the special finance commission to the United States recently, stated that of this amount the nation had expended one billion in co-operating with the allies.

On the same day the Japan Association in Aid of the Sick and Wounded in Allied Countries announced that the total sum collected 2,002,983 yen, of which 100,000 yen was given by the emperor and empress. Of this fund France, Italy, Russia and Belgium will each receive 363,000 yen; England, 368,000 yen, and Serbia and Rumania each 60,000 yen.

RUSH FOR "SCOTCH."

(By Associated Press.)

GLASGOW, Nov. 15.—There is a great rush for whisky in this town and despite the very high prices now ruling there have been long lines of women in the Clyde working districts waiting outside shops to buy as many bottles as possible for the Christmas festivities.

Scotch distillers express the belief that the sale of whisky will cease in a few weeks and this has increased the urgency of the demand. Publicans have decided to curtail their selling hours, and prices in the bars have risen to ten pence a glass in the poorer districts and to fourteen pence in the higher class saloons.

These are the highest prices ever known in Scotland, but, in consequence of the big wages now being earned, there is no slackening in the demand.

SEND FOR UNION HEADS.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 15.—The president's mediation commission has telegraphed to the unions of operators and electrical workers on strike in the Northwestern cities to send representatives to San Francisco immediately to confer with the commission in connection with the wage and organization controversy with the Pacific Telephone company.

Too Much Food Is Bad for Man — and So Is Too Little

WE can overindulge in almost anything, such as tea and coffee drinking, and even in the use of water. There is such a thing as "Aquamania" (water lunacy) and we also have food drunkards. Everyone knows that the intemperate use of alcoholic beverages is unquestionably injurious, just as every sane man knows that the temperate use of a mild Barley-Malt and Saazer Hop brew, such as BUDWEISER, is the drink of moderation. BUDWEISER sales exceed other beers by millions of bottles, because it is brewed in the good old honest way. Quality has for 60 years been the secret of its success.
